Macaulay Predicts Caesarism.
Harpur's Magazine for February will contain a number of letters from the late Lord Macaulay to H. S. Randall, author of the "Life of Jefferson." That, although written nearly twenty years ago, are particularly timely at this moment. Macaulay did not believe in Jefferson or the Jeffersonian policy and he expressed himself very freely to Mr. Randall. We quote in advance of its publication a few extracts from a letter dated May 23, 1857:

You are surprised to learn that I have not a high opinion of Mr. Jefferson, and I am surprised to find that I never, in Parliament, in conversation, or even on the business—places where it is the fashion to court the opinion—uttered a word indicating an opinion that the supreme authority in a State ought to be intrusted to the majority of citizens told by the head; in other words, to the poorest and most ignorant part of society. I have long been convinced that institutions purely democratic, sooner or later, destroy liberty or civilization, or both. In Europe, where the population is dense, the effect of such institutions would be almost instantaneous.
* * * You may think that your country enjoys an exemption from these evils. I will frankly own to you that I am of a very different opinion. Your fate I believe to be certain, though it is deferred by a physical cause. As long as you have a boundless extent of fertile and uncultivated land your laboring population will be far older than the laboring population of the Old World, and, while that is the case, the Jeffersonian policy may continue to exist without causing any fatal calamity. But the time will come when New England will be as thickly peopled as old England. Wages will be as low, and will fluctuate as much with you as with us. You will have your Manchester and Birmingham, and in these Manchester and Birmingham hundreds of thousands of artisans will be assembled, some of them by the thousands. Then your institutions will be fairly brought to the test.
* * * It is quite plain that your government will never be able to restrain a discontent and discontented majority. For with you the majority is the government, and has the rich, who are always a minority, absolutely at its mercy. The day will come when the State of New York a multitude of people, none of whom has had more than half a breakfast, or expects to have more than half a dinner, will choose a Legislature. Is it possible to doubt what sort of a Legislature will be chosen? On one side is a statesman preaching patience, respect for vested rights, strict observance of public faith. On the other is a demagogue preaching about the tyranny of capitalists and monsters, and asking why anybody should be permitted to drink champagne and ride in a carriage while thousands of honest folks are in want of necessities. Which of the two candidates is likely to be preferred by a workingman who hears his children cry for more bread? I seriously apprehend that you will, in some such season of adversity as I have described, see changes which will prevent prosperity, and results which you will not like people who should in a year of scarcity devour all the seed corn, and thus make the next year a year of starvation, and of absolute famine. There will be, I fear, a great deal of bloodshed. The distress will produce fresh socialization. There is nothing to stop you.
Your constitution is all sail and no anchor. As I said before, when a society has entered on this downward progress either civilization or liberty must perish. Either some Caesar or Napoleon will seize the reins of government with a strong hand and your Republic will be as feebly plundered and laid waste by barbarians in the twentieth century as the Roman Empire was in the fifth, with this difference, that the Huns and Vandals will have been engendered within your own country by your own institutions.

Is this not a prediction of Caesarism?—New York Herald.

A SCOTCH LAD FORGETS HIMSELF.—At a dinner in Glasgow, on a certain occasion, Dr.
MacKay sat next to the Provost of the city, who related to him the following edifying story:— "I remember," said the Provost, "when I was a lad, and traveling to my father's business, I made the acquaintance of your father, who was manager of the theatre of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.
He invited me to sup with him at his lodgings.
It was on a Sabbath—just as this is—and he had no other day to receive his friends in comfort. I was na' a bullic at that time, and went without meikle scruple. There were eight or nine people, and they drank, and smoked, and talked. At last a game at whist was proposed. I was shocked for a while. All my Scottish notions were outraged, and I thought I was gang awa; but I did na'. I just lookit on, and wondered a wee at the wickedness around me. Your father and I were the only ones who did not play; but we both lookit on, and watched the game. I had a full share of good water, and so I think had your father, as he was na' a tou, nor near it, though I might,
as he was na' a tou, nor near it, though I might,
and I saw one fellow playing so badly, and losing his money, that when the rubber ended, he said he'd play no more. I just without meikle thought on the matter, resolved to take a hand myself. I forgot a' about the Sabbath, and before a' was done, I had cleared out upon seventeen pounds by the night's work!"

MEDICINES.
TAKE
SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.
WILL CURE
DYSPEPSIA.
I MUST OWN that your
Simmons' Liver Regulator
fully deserves the popularity it has attained. As a family medicine it has no equal.
I cured my wife of a malady I had counted incurable —that woful disease of our American people, Dyspepsia.
A. E. P. ALBERT,
Professor in Nicholas Public School, Parish of Terrebonne, La.

MALARIOUS FEVERS.
You are at liberty to use my name in praise of your Regulator as prepared by you, and recommend it to every one, the best preventive for Fever and Ague in the world. I plant in southwestern Georgia, near Albany, Georgia, and must say that it has done more good on my plantation among my negroes than any medicine I ever used. It surpasses quinine if taken in time. Yours, &c., Hon. B. H. HILL, Esq.

CHILDREN'S REGULATOR.—Your Regulator is superior to any other remedy for Malarial Diseases among children, and it has a large sale in this section of Georgia.—(W. M.
Russell, Albany, Ga.)

CONSTITUTION.
TESTIMONY OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF GEORGIA.—I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for constipation of my bowels, caused by a temporary derangement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always, when used according to the directions, with decided benefit. I think it is a good medicine for the derangement of the liver—at least such has been my personal experience in the use of it.
HIRM WARNER,
Chief Justice of Georgia.

SICK HEADACHE.
EDITORIAL.—We have tested its virtues, personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Thor-bolic Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw.
We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons'
Liver Regulator, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief; but the Regulator not only relieved but cured us.—Editor Telegraph and Messenger, Alexandria, Ga.

COLIC AND GRUBBS IN HORSES.
Having had during the last twenty years of my life to attend to Racing Stock, and having had so much trouble with them with Colic, Grubbs, &c., gave me a great deal of trouble.
I have tried forty other remedies before Simmons'
Liver Regulator, but none
Regulator not only relieved
but cured us.—Editor Tele-
andria, Ga.

DRY GOODS.
Farewell to Alexandria.
Having received to-day the last and remaining stock of the Combination, I most respectfully announce to the people of Alexandria and vicinity that I will remove the entire stock on or about the first day of February. Having determined to sell all goods at a great sacrifice rather than remove them, and having concluded rather to dispose of them at private sale than at auction, I will only say one word, and that is, that ALL OUR GOODS ARE MARKED AT EX-ACTLY ONE HALF ORIGINAL VALUE, and only ask an examination of the prices and goods, which are arranged from this day in lots and prices to make every one astonished—a chance you will never, never get again. Call and convince yourself, as this is the only proper way I can satisfy you all. Thanking my friends and customers for their liberal share of patronage, I am most thankfully yours,
